Fairlie Castle in Daffodil Time. No month is more beautiful in Fairlie than March or early April, when the fair native "Lent lilies" disport themselves in unexpected places, the bleating of the sheep and the rusty hue of last year's bracken adding to the delights of the spring. This is the locality referred to in the well-known lines:—

"There's nae licht in my lady's bower,
There's nae licht in my hall,
Nae blink shines round my Fairlie fair,
Nor ward stands on my wall."
